Passage for the Month

Five Lessons Of Impartation From Acts 3:1-10

I. THE SPIRIT FILLED CHURCH IMPARTS EXPECTANCY (vv. 3-5)

It was the ninth hour, or three o'clock in the afternoon, which was the usual hour for prayer for the Jews. But it has special significance to the Christians, that is when Jesus Christ said it is finished and died. Peter and John were going to the temple at that hour when a certain lame man from his mothers womb who they laid daily at the gate of the temple called beautiful asked for alms. Peter stopped and said to him, "Look at us!" According to verse 5 this man expected to receive something from Peter and John. He did not know what he was going to get, obviously thought it would be money, but his faith was quickened by Peter's words. It is very necessary to receive anything from God. You must expect something from him.

II. THE SPIRIT FILLED CHURCH IMPARTS HEALING (vv. 6-7)

The minute that Peter had this man's attention he did two things; First, he admitted his bankruptcy in material things. "Silver and Gold have I none." It was not that they were opposed to giving to the poor, but they could not give what they did not possess. And then, he demonstrated his amazing adequacy in the spiritual realm. "In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, arise and walk." Because the disciples were "partakers of the divine nature" (1 Peter 1:4) they could impart the power of Christ because they were full of Christ. He could only give what he had. And so it is with us. If we do not possess a living relationship with Jesus Christ, we will never be able to impart a heavenly touch to others. You can only impart what you have. It is important that we take care to develop our own spiritual life if we would impart spiritual life to others.

III. THE SPIRIT FILLED CHURCH IMPARTS JOY (v. 8)

"So he, leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God." The man who had never walked in his life stood up with a leap and he didn't quit leaping. Look at the metamorphosis of the man. There was a metamorphosis as a result of this miracle. The man was changed. Not only was he healed, but joy flooded his soul. The Scripture says, "Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping, and praising God." Because someone cared enough to reach out to him in the name of Jesus, his life had been transformed. What did this mean to him? It meant now that he could walk. It meant that he could work. It meant that he could live a full life. But it meant more than that—much more. It meant that somebody cared. It meant that God loved him. Now he could live in communion with God every day.

IV. THE SPIRIT FILLED CHURCH IMPARTS WONDER (3:9-10)

"And all the people saw him walking and praising God. (10) Then they knew that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him." Acts 3: 9-10 (NKJV)

There was an immediate two-fold effect. The people were convinced that it was God at work, and that this miracle had been done in the name of Jesus. The people saw it and were convinced that God was at work and, and they were prepared to listen to the explanation.

THE SPIRIT-FILLED CHURCH IMPARTS A WITNESS.

As we have already noted what this man needed, indeed, what all people need is a heavenly touch from God. What this lame man needed was the power of Holy Spirit made available to him. But how was he to get it? He lived his life out of the main stream. He was oblivious to the good news of God.

Lets have a complete relationship so we can also cause changes to lives. Amen
