Passage for the Month

For He Himself knew what He will do (vs. 6) John 6:1-13

The feeding of the five thousand is the only miracle recorded by all the four Gospel writers. I believe this was so because of the nature of the occasion and the unique lessons therein for us as Christ disciples. It was the occasion for testing the personal reactions of the disciples. Jesus' question to Philip (verse 5) is a clear indication that he was interested to know how much faith the disciples as individual have placed in him as a son of God. Jesus could have performed the miracle without asking any of the disciples do anything as stated in vs. 6 "For He Himself knew what He will do", yet he did ask because of what he wanted to teach them. Philip's reply to Jesus' question in verse 7 revealed his pessimistic mindset of the occasion. Even though, Philip has been with Jesus right from the inception of Jesus' ministry. He was a witness when Jesus performed his first miracle at the wedding feast by turning water into wine (John 2) and other miracles, yet he was bold enough to tell Jesus it is impossible to feed the crowd. Philip was very sure of what could not be done, but had no vision of what could be done because he allowed the crowd to have influence in his faith in Jesus. Today, there are still people with Philip's mindset in the church. We always fail the test to Jesus when we are tested by him. We most of the times allow our circumstances to paralyze our faith in Jesus by responding negatively to the test like that of Philip, even though Jesus already knows what he is going to do when we are tested. Immediately after Philip landed, Andrew stepped on the scene as a volunteer. Andrew knew what Jesus could do so he persuaded a young boy to give out his food yet his statement in vs. 9^b "But what good is that with this huge crowd" shows that he was sceptical of the occasion forgetting who Jesus was. Closer examination shows that his faith was completely divided. Today, Andrew's are also in the church. Sometimes we find it very difficult in certain situations to fully trust Jesus due to the nature of situations. What we fail to realise is that Jesus always knows the beginning from the end and the end from the beginning. Before He allows any situation come to us, He already knows what He is going to do.

Lesson to Philip and Andrew-After the two disciples had finished with their reactions in response to the occasion, Jesus taught them a lesson that all Christians must learn by feeding the huge crowd- vs. 10-13. Jesus proved to Philip that He the son of God is superior over every human statistical impossibilities- Mathew 19: 26 .To Andrew, Jesus proved to him that He the son of God is ready to justify any faith placed in him- Mathew 17: 20

In our current situation, Jesus already knows what He is going to do. He is only testing us to see how much faith we have placed in him like that of the disciples. Philip failed the test and he failed so we can learn lesson from him to pass our test. Say to yourself I will pass my test. God richly bless you in this month of August- Amen.
