**Passage for the Month****

Christ In You

To whom God was pleased to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Col. 1:27).

"Christ in you." No one can have a final demonstration of truth concerning the nature of Christ or His work unless he can say, I know Christ because He is in me. As the apostle says, this is mystical and cannot be explained to the scientific age in which we live. But it is a fact known in the lives of countless multitudes.

Christ in me -- and I need hardly apologize for testimony at this point, for speaking rather as a witness than as an advocate: Christ in me is the most certain thing in all my personal experience. He is present in my inner life. I do not have to ascend to heaven to find Him, nor descent into the depths to bring Him up. Neither have I to go on long pilgrimages to reach Him. Amid the hurry and rush of the day, the Christ is within, and His presence is as real as to me as the advent long ago in the Judean country far away. The historic is proved by the experiential.

The use of our Lord's title suggests not merely the presence of the Person, but also the work of Christ in you. He was at once Prophet, Priest, and King. He is the one Prophet and Teacher by whom the whole life is to be governed -- whose teaching is the only teaching which the soul trusts.

"Christ in you" also as Priest, the one perfect Savior, operating in the inner shrine of the individual life on the altar; so that through the intermediation, not of Christ far off, but in me, I have personal and immediate access to the presence of God. Then, further, "Christ in you" also as King, ruling all the life, not by the law of carnal ordinances written on stone, but by the perpetual inspiration of His indwelling presence.

"Christ in you." That is the great miracle, the great mystery, the fact on which all the other facts of Christianity are based, and through which the other forces of Christianity become operative.

The hope of glory

Now let us turn to the experience resulting, "the hope of glory." "Glory" here refers to the great consummation in which God's purposes are to be perfectly fulfilled; in which the church, with one voice, will say, "Thou, O Christ, are all I want"; and in which the whole creation will find its groaning cease and join the chorus of praise to Him who sits upon the throne. God's glory consists in the realization of the purpose of His love in all that His hands have made.

Christ in you is the hope of this glory. What is hope? I wish we bore in mind the real significance of the good old Anglo-Saxon word "hope." It does not mean foundation less expectation, but rather confidence in something yet to be, with an accompanying endeavor to reach it.

Christ in you is the one unanswerable evidence of the ultimate victory. Thank God for the company in whose lives Christ is singing the anthem of His coming victory. We are in the midst of the smoke and din of battle. There are days when we sit and fold our hands and say, "Where is the promise of His coming?" No Christian man has ever wailed that out but that presently there came singing back through his soul the answer of the Christ.

But "Christ in you, the hope of glory" means a great deal more than that the sings an anthem of the future. He who gives us a vision of the ultimate is also present to deal with all the forces which oppose.

ANNOUNCEMENTS/ MEETINGS

The hope of glory means that at last the wrongs will be righted, the tyrannies broken, and humanity delivered -- but Christ in me means power in me to help bring it to pass. I am renegade if I sit still and listen to His singing and do not cooperate in His effort.

So if the great untold mystery of God in Christ has become the personal mystery of Christ in me, then what? Then I see with His eyes all the evil loose in the world -- but that is not the ultimate thing. What is the ultimate thing? It is that He who came to destroy the works of the devil will destroy them in me.

His victory is assured • The song of it is in our hearts. God help us to answer the call of the song and hasten the triumph.
