Success

The Bible comments on mankind's desire for money and wealth. King Solomon, a man to whom God gave great wisdom, wrote most of the Proverbs. Solomon had everything a human being could wish for, yet he gave this warning: "Do not toil to acquire wealth; be wise enough to desist. When your eyes light upon it, it is gone; for suddenly it takes to itself wings, flying like an eagle toward heaven" (Proverbs 23:4-5, RSV).

King Solomon was striving to experience "life to the full." But he retained his wisdom in examining the effect of his experiences. What was the result?

"Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart rejoiced in all my labor; and this was my reward from all my labor. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done and on the labor in which I had toiled; and indeed all was vanity and grasping for the wind. There was no profit under the sun" (Ecclesiastes 2:10-11). In other words, all his possessions and pleasure amounted to nothing—because they produced nothing of lasting value!

Some look for success in status, power and position, rather than in wealth. Is that true success? The mother of James and John—two of Jesus' disciples—came to Him with a request: "She said to Him, 'Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom.' But Jesus answered and said, 'You do not know what you ask'" (Matthew 20:21-22). He then told them that those positions were for those chosen and prepared by My Father."

Jesus then shared a great key to true success, in contrast to the vanity of rulers lording over others. "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Matthew 20:25-28).

The greatest is one who is a true servant—one who truly cares for and helps others! Notice that it was the Son of God, Jesus of Nazareth, who took little children up in His arms and who stooped over to wash the feet of His disciples. You can read about that foot-washing service in John 13. It was Jesus who sacrificed His life for us all! As the Apostle Paul wrote: "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8).

Continuation (Passage for the month)

Jesus' example was one of service, sacrifice and love. "For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life" (Romans 5:10).

Whatever position we may hold in this life, we will never find true success unless we have an attitude of godly service toward others. One of the measures of true success is the degree of godly service one is willing to give.
